John Cassel

In Memoriam

Deep loving, well knowing
His world and its blindness
A heart overflowing
With measureless kindness,

Undaunted in labor,
And Death was a trifle;
Steel-true as a saber,
Direct as a rifle,

A storm-battling cedar,
A comrade, a brother;
Oh, such was our leader,
Beloved as no other.

When weaker souls faltered
His courage remade us
Whose tongue never paltered,
Who never betrayed us.

His hand on your shoulder
All honors exceeding,
What breast but was bolder
Because he was leading!

By ARTHUR GUTERMAN

BIOGRAPHY OF

J. Eris Cassell

In Max Meadows, Virginia, on March 20, 1879, J. Eris Cassell was born. His father was the late Charles Henry Cassell; and his mother, the late Mrs. Anna Tate Cassell. Charles Henry Cassell, Jr., Field Montgomery Cassell, and John Tate Cassell are his brothers. His sisters are Mrs. Mary Baxter Otey and Mrs. Elizabeth Graham Tate.

At the age of seven, Eris Cassell and his family moved to Christianburg, Virginia. After graduation at the top of his class from high school there, he was employed as a payroll clerk at the Phoenix Furniture Company for a year.

Ambitious for more education, J. Eris, then twenty years old, strongly desired to go to college although there was little money to pay his way. Finding work to make money to pay his expenses, this brilliant young man, hopeful, courageous, and hardworking, entered Davidson College in 1917. In the spring of his Freshman year, 1918, he left Davidson to join the Navy. Since World War I ended in November of that year, he left the Navy in December after six months of service. Returning to Davidson in January 1919, he caught up with his class and in 1921 graduated as salutatorian of his class. During his college career, Mr. Cassell was managing editor of the Davidsonian in his junior year, and editor-in-chief his senior year, a four-year letter man in baseball, and a senior member of the Student Council. He held membership in Kappa Alpha, Phi Beta Kappa, Omricon Delta, and Sigma Upsilon, social, scholastic, leadership, and literary fraternities. He became a member of the Phi Delta Dappa, national educational fraternity, when he was at the University of Virginia working for his Master of Arts degree.

After serving as teacher and coach at McCallie Preparatory School at Chattanooga, Tennessee, he was elected principal and coach of Lenoir High School in 1922. In 1922 and 1923 he played semi-pro baseball.

For six years Mr. Cassell lived in Gastonia to which he moved in 1923 when he was chosen principal of Gastonia High School. On July 19, 1927, he married Miss Mildred Counts, a teacher in Gastonia, from Laurens, South Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. Cassell left Gastonia in 1929 to come to Concord.

In Concord, the Cassells lived at Mrs. Richmond Reed's for eight years and then in 1937 moved to their home at 99 North Church street. Since moving to Concord, Mr. Cassell had shown great leadership as principal of Concord High School, which made excellent progress under him; however, resigning in 1933 from high school, he became a special agent for the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company.

After being very successful in the insurance business at North Wilkesboro, he was transferred to Greensboro as supervisor of the Company's home agency. Setting himself up in the insurance business in Concord in March, 1935, he remained at this work here until 1938. Understanding that he might remain connected with his insurance business, Mr. Cassell again became principal of the high school. He served faithfully until the spring of 1945 when illness made it impossible for him to be at school. After being ill for three months of a complication of diseases, he died on July 16, 1945.

Mr. Cassell took part in many different activities. He was a member of the North Carolina Education Association, secretary of the South Piedmont Athletic Conference, a member of the National Education Association, executive secretary for the Western North Carolina High School Activities, which he and R. C. Carver organized, and a member of the Cabarrus County Life Underwriters Association, the Concord Rotary Club, and the American Legion. Constantly interested in athletics, Mr. Cassell was secretary-treasurer and business manager of the Concord Baseball Association. He nearly always could be seen at the high school basketball, football, and baseball games. A member of the First Presbyterian Church, he was assistant superintendent of the Sunday school and a teacher of the young men's class. Although knowing little about farming Mr. Cassell liked very much to visit his sister's dairy farm in Pulaski, Virginia. History and current events were his favorite reading topics. He did not like movies, but he was greatly interested in music even though he had no musical talent. One of his brothers is an organist. Yes, Eris Cassell's interests were many.

The development of proper citizenship among his pupils is chiefly included in Mr. Cassell's philosophy of high school education. He believed that this citizenship is developed from gaining habits, appreciation, and attitudes which can be carried from school into adult life. As principal of Concord high school, he constantly stressed the importance of character training of students here.

Mr. Cassell did much for Concord high school. He rendered devoted service and a great love for his students here. These students will never forget him or his helpful guidance. He was their leader.

SALUTATORY

By Steadfastness and Courage . . .

The Class of '46 reaches her commencement at a time when there are many opportunities. We have attained the key to the door of success through our years at Concord High School. What we need to step inside that door is steadfastness and courage. A guiding voice calls to us in the words of Norman McCleod:

*"Courage, brother! do not stumble
Though thy path be dark as night;
There's a star to guide the humble;
Trust in God, and do the right.*

*Though the road be long and dreary,
And the end be out of sight,
Tread it bravely, strong, or weary;
Trust in God, and do the right."*

This beginning of our education has given us ambition to dream, to be, to do. We have the will to struggle against defeat. We have worked to build independent characters and strong minds to lead us in the best moral, intellectual, and industrial ways. As Longfellow has said:

*"Build today, then, strong and sure,
With a firm and ample base;
And ascending and secure
Shall tomorrow find its place."*

We have reached a goal, commencement; but this is not the end of our search for knowledge. It is truly the beginning of a new part of our lives. We begin to shape a better, more prosperous, more peaceful world.

CLASS PROPHECY

Shakespeare's famous character, MacBeth, isn't the only person who has had a conference with the three witches. We privileged two were allowed to consult the strange "beauties" about your future—your future—and your future!

The leaders of our extraordinary class were our first interest and upon questioning, we found that their lives look very bright. Charlie Rimer is foreseen as a famous North Carolina professor and coach at Carolina, rivaling with Coach Jack Miller's Duke Blue Devils. Lawyers Grady Carpenter and John Boger will help keep our country in order, but Grady's Gulf Oil Corporation will make his living easier.

Tommy Maness will give these lawyers much competition.

Frederick Smetana will be sitting behind the executive desk of the Bill Gwyn Aeronautics, Inc., Industry. Working under Fred will be Bob Kellough, chief designer, Wilburn Livengood, chief test pilot, and Betty Braswell, private secretary.

Nurses Iris Martin, Mary Ann Smith, and Louise Campayner will be binding the broken loves of heavyweights, Paul Brown and Walter Litaker.

Taking the place of the Andrew Sisters will be Jewell Frye, Lois Arrowood, and Betsy Mills.

Bob Wilhelm's Swingsters will be playing at the "Diamond Horseshoe" owned by Jack McCachern. Featured with the band are Farrell White with his talking clarinet and the Ritchie Twins with their thumping trumpets. His sophisticated soloist will be Betty Hobby.

Handsome Guy Beaver and glamorous Betty Barbee will really make one swoon, but also gaining in stardom will be Frances Mitchell, Jane Krider, and Betty Jean Klutz with leading men Bill McRae, Bob Moose, and Gene Brown!

Leaders in the field of education will be Miss Carol McCoy, well known geometry expert, and Miss Cornelia Greene, doctor of law, and also a famous detective.

Miriam Moose will be proprietor of "Moosie's Hotdog Stand" at Myrtle Beach and her capable staff of waitresses will include Jackie Wilson, Iris Corzine, Pat Sherrill, and Frances Marlow.

George Barnhardt and Lee Talbirt will own a large locomotive company. Their Chief designers are Leland Pritchard and Baker Morrison. Some of the company's most important executives are Jack Brewer, Carrol Case, Marvin Swaringen and Don Roberts.

At "Capitol Hill" the Secretary of Interior Bill Propst, will meet with the labor leaders. AFL president Bill Hedrick, CIO president Hubert Cress, and AFM president Leroy Richardson will be present for important discussions of 1960.

The future of our state will be in feminine hand with governor Ebba Jo Tate becoming very prominent in nation wide politics. Feminine members of the N. C. Senate will be Doris Little, Betty Bost, Ruth Belton, Elaine Barrier, and Dolly Ruth Hartsell.

Kathleen Little, Claudine Lomax, and Martha Pharr will be partners in the "Fashion Shoppe." Some of their capable employees will be Evelyn Drye, Nancy Clay, Mae Barringer, Peggy Biggers, and Elizabeth Bonds.

Ella Frances Sowers will be editor of a big New York newspaper owned by Edgar Christy. Some of the employees of the paper are Margaret Suther, business manager, Helen Strawn, feature editor; Jack Underwood, sports editor; and Bob Raiford, circulation manager. Articles by Billy Goodman, Philharmonic conductor, and Frankie Wilkinson, best-dressed woman in America, will add much to the paper.

Head of a large business school will be Martha Irvin. Her valuable helpers and teachers will include Emogene Winecoff, Mary Belle Smith, Juanita Swinson, Frances Young, Ruby Hatley, and Billie Jean Miller.

A famous girl's basketball team which will attract world interest will star Margaret Andrews, Blanche Ashby, Carolyn Harris, Ruth Aiken, Leona Barnhardt, Joyce Newton, Martha Perry, Zell Summerrell, Dorothy Faggart, Betty Jean Misenheimer, and Frances Carroll.

Dorothy Ritchie, Betty Stewart, Vivian Newton, Earlene Moore, Miriam Childers, and Margaret Misenheimer are seen stewardesses on planes whose destinations are the moon!

The witches seemed to believe that Eva Ann and Bertha's futures are already settled!

Should we believe the witches? We thought it best to let you in on our big secret, but we'll just have to wait and see the outcome of the forecasting.

PEGGY BLACKWELDER and JACK MILLER

CLASS HISTORY

As we gaze upon the nearly-finished structure of Commencement Hall, let us look back and follow the steps taken in the erection of this building.

In the fall of 1942, the corner stone was laid. The job of building a basement was begun, as the eager but inexperienced workers began their task. The superintendent of these Freshmen was Arthur Stewart, with Grady Carpenter, Ebba Jo Tate, and John Boger as his foremen.

By 1943 the work was progressing rapidly as Ebba Jo Tate capably supervised the building of the first floor. The hard-working Sophomores were urged on by their overseers, Jack Miller, Ray Isenhour, and Betty Bost. Many happy faces were turned toward the building as the second year of their undertaking was drawing to a close.

With the approach of fall, 1945, the determined workers began the addition of a second story. They strived unceasingly under the competent leadership of Charlie Rimer, aided by Jack Miller, Grady Carpenter, and Iris Jean Martin. In recognition of their fine progress, the Junior workers feted their Senior partners with a banquet and dance. Work was resumed as all hearts looked forward to the completion of this building which was hoped for the following year.

All hopes and desires are being fulfilled by the enthusiastic Seniors as the final steps are being taken to perfect the construction of Commencement Hall in this, the year of 1946. Under the direction of the leaders of the previous year, with John Boger taking Iris Jean Martin's place, a third and last floor is being laid. This, we trust, will be the most perfect of all.

Now, as experienced workers, our hopes and plans for the future are to build larger and more beautiful edifices. Our work as Builders is "Not finished, just begun."

BETTY JEAN KLUTTZ, Class Historian.

Last Will and Testament of Class of 1946

We, the Senior Class of 1946, of the town of Concord, of the county of Cabarrus, and the state of North Carolina, being in as good mental condition as usual and in a better temper, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament:

ITEM FIRST

To our beloved and patient principal, Mr. Glenn, we return the quiet and peaceful halls that were found here before we darkened the threshold of this beautiful structure.

ITEM SECOND

To the faculty, who succeeded against immovable obstacles in imparting a little useful knowledge to us, we leave the peace of mind that is bound to follow after our departure.

ITEM THIRD

To those fortunate students who remain behind, we bequeath the joy of learning, the school, and the wonderful time had by all.

ITEM FOURTH

To all Juniors we bequeath the pleasure and fun had in your last year of high school; and to other members of the school, certain Seniors bequeath the following traits and arts—if they can be called that:

Betty Hobby leaves her “foghorn” voice to Frances Ferguson so that she may be able to lead the “rooting” section.

Bertha Redwine leaves her basketball ability to her very worthy partner (who is not in need of it), “Bet” Smith.

Critz Query leaves his dare devil driving tactics to any one who has the nerve to use them.

“Pepsi” Mitchell bequeaths her “strutting” ability to Phylis Tate.

Bob Moose leaves part of his weight to Bobby Riggs who could use a little.

Nancy Whitener wants to leave her “flapping” ways to Anne Sapp.

Baker Morrison leaves his managing position in the Student Store to his colleague, Tommy Walters.

Grady Carpenter and Charlie Rimer bequeath their football ability to George “Anvelhead” “Ick” Alley and Bob Mabrey, trusting that they will use it wisely next year.

Guy Beaver leaves his handsome looks and winning ways with the girls to Jimmy Coble.

To her able assistant, “Rabbit” Drye, “Frankie” Wilkinson leaves her position as manager of the girls basketball team.

Gene Brown would like to leave his ability to relax (?) to someone but is unable to find a worthy person.

“Johnny” Pounds would like to leave a “No Trespassing” sign to Glenn Burris as a warning to all females.

Peggy Blackwelder is leaving her pleasing smile to her cousin, Bobby Lee.

“Jackie” Wilson would like to leave someone her flirtatious ways, but she can’t think of anyone who needs them.

Iris Corzine is leaving her cheerleading ability to her little sister, Lael.

Doris Calloway is the lucky receiver of Jewel Frye’s freckles.

Jack Ritchie wills his corner to anyone who would like to have it.

Last, but not least, Lee Talbirt just leaves.

Finally we, the Senior Class of 1946, do make, constitute, and declare the Senior Class of 1947 to be the executors of this our last will and testament.

In Witness Whereof, We hereunto subscribe our names, this first day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-six,

“Not Finished, Just Begun”

Commencement is a crossroad on our journey of the path of life. It marks the end of four prosperous years spent together in acquiring knowledge and wisdom, and the beginning of a new world, shrouded in mystery and darkness. No longer as members of an organized class, but as individuals we must pack our bags with the knowledge and wisdom which we have obtained; bid farewell to our friends, teachers, and counselors; and prepare to explore the uncertain trails which commencement is opening.

Truly, “A time like this demands strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands.” The world needs us, the youth of today and the leaders of tomorrow. We shall have to settle the problems of turmoil, hatred, and distrust, and establish a new pattern of peace, justice, and understanding among nations. To do this, we, the members of the graduating class of nineteen-hundred and forty-six must choose the path for which we are suited best. Perhaps some of us will be great leaders; all of us must be useful citizens of our community, our nation, and our God.

Our journey thus far has been one marked by signposts of war. These milestones, however, have served to instill in youth a desire to make a future of brighter and better things. Before departing from past opportunities to venture the untried, we cannot refrain from expressing our gratitude, indebtedness, and admiration for those who have helped us over the bumpy roads and pitfalls. The encouragement and influence of our advisors and companions have strengthened in us a desire to press forward, to test the knowledge which we have acquired, to face the future unafraid. Our journey is far from finished; it has just begun.

For the ways of men must sever—
And it well may be for a day and a night,
And it well may be forever.
But whether we meet or whether we part
(For our ways are past our knowing)
A pledge from the heart to its fellow heart
On the ways we all are going!
Here's luck!
For we know not where we are going.*

EBBA JO TATE—Valedictorian

forward

*The time grows near
That we must part
With Childhood dreams
And schoolday cares
Now, into a New World
We must start,
A world of countless dares.*

*As into the future our Footsteps sound,
We gather memories and
Thoughts of the past.
And thus we go, forward bound
To the land of "Success at Last."*

FOOTBALL

Coach Harry Hollingsworth led his team in the third successful season this year by winning six, tying three, and losing one.

The Concord Spiders opened their season with a victory from Newton-Conover by a score of 6 per cent, all the members of the team playing magnificent ball.

After losing to Children's Home most students and people of Concord did not have much hope for the team, but the squad came back fighting with a determined will for victory.

The 1945-46 squad was sparked by the return of six lettermen of the reserves of last year's team. They were Lee Talbirt, Jack Underwood, Jack McCathern, Bill MacRae, Charlie Rimer, and Grady Carpenter. With these returning "Vets," and the aid of Jack Miller, Jack and Joe Ritchie, "Ick" Alley, Alex Mills, Ernest Kluttz, David Cook, and Bill Johnsey, Coach Hollingsworth molded his 46 squad into one of the best teams of the South Piedmont Conference.

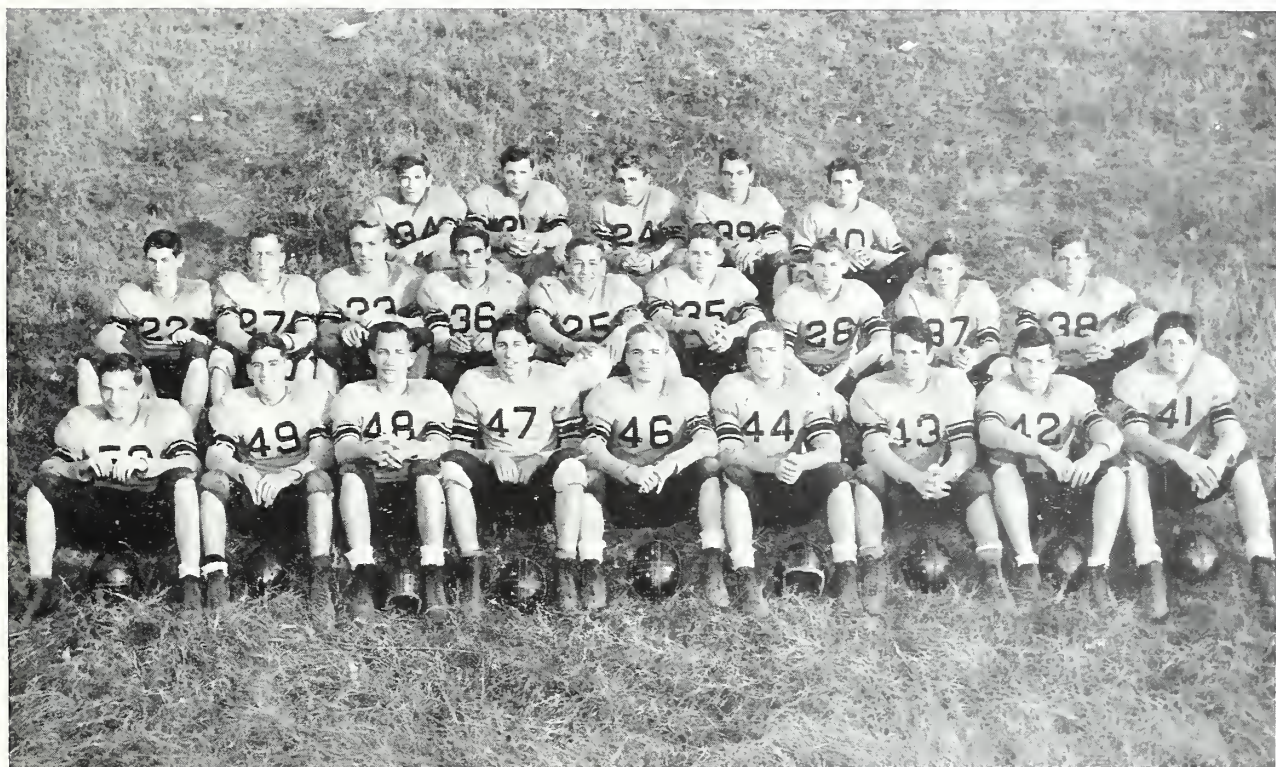

Certainly the outstanding victory of the year was the overwhelming defeat of Kannapolis Little Wonders by a score of 27-0. Despite their spirit to win, Little Wonders could not be compared to the Victorious Spiders.

Again this year, as before, the Spiders were represented by a member of their squad, Jack McCathern, in the Shrine All Star Football Game in Charlotte. McCathern blocked their punt to score the first two points in the game to give N. C. a lead and victory.

The capable Charlie Rimer was elected captain of the 46 football squad.

HARRY HOLLINGSWORTH
Coach

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The girls basketball team had a fairly good season this year. They won ten out of fourteen games.

Betty Smith and Margaret Andrews were absent from the first four games due to their grades for the last semester of the '44 and '45 season. They were the only players the team lost under these circumstances.

Bertha Redwine and Betty Smith acted as co-captains for the '46 team. The outstanding forwards of the year were Bertha Redwine, Betty Smith, Margaret Suther, and Ebba Jo Tate, while the star guards were Blanche Ashby, Margaret Andrews, and Miriam Moose.

The team will loose all its players this year with the exception of Betty Smith.

The team entered and won the South-Piedmont Basketball Tournament March 6-9 at the Catawba Gym in Salisbury. Three of the players made the All Star team: Blanche Ashby, Bertha Redwine, and Betty Smith.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

Players: John Boger, Donald Roberts, Alex Mills, King Willis, Billy Johnsy, George Alley, David Crosland, Jimmy Coble, Jimmy Doggett, James Braswell, Allen Staten, Jimmy Wilkenson
Managers: Jack Underwood, Buddy Trexler

The 1946 basketball team under the direction of Coach Hollingsworth began its season with only three letter men, John Boger, Jimmy Coble, and Donald Roberts. With these three men he added Alex Mills, King Willis, Ernest Klutz, Billy Johnsy, and George Alley to make a team.

The team this year has won four games out of fourteen. The basketball team will be a good one next year since nearly all the boys are Juniors and Sophomores.

John Boger was captain of the squad.

The Student Organization of Concord High School, consisting of two bodies, the Student Assembly and the Student Council, was formed to encourage a more effective spirit of co-operation between the faculty and the student body, to insure a spirit of democracy, to establish and maintain higher moral and scholastic standards, to encourage participation of students in all school activities and to afford opportunity for real training in citizenship.

The activities of the Student Assembly are varied. Foremost among its regular responsibilities are the handling of traffic in the corridors, the general supervision of the building and the grounds, and the enforcement of the democratic "point system" of membership and honors. Seasonal activities consist of sponsoring "Clean-Up Week," supervising "Parents and Sponsors Night" for the football team, and publishing the student handbook, THE WEB. Other activities are of a social nature, such as the welcoming of new students, the entertainment of school visitors, and the supervision of school social functions. This organization is the link between the administration and the student body, and the "tuning fork" for a student sentiment and school spirit.

The Student Council, consisting of one boy and girl representative from each class elected from among the Student Assemblymen, is an advisory body for the Student Assembly. The Student Council makes a careful study of any matter referred to it by the assembly, and is constantly studying school conditions with the objective of improving the morale of the school.

The Hobby Club of Concord High School is one of the most outstanding clubs of the school. This club has grown out of one of the smallest clubs into the largest.

The club was started several years ago by Mr. D. H. Ives and has become popular with the students of Concord High because of the increasing hobbies of the students. When it was first started it had only eighteen members and now it has grown to the membership of eighty.

When the club was first started they only made a few small things. Now, due to the fact that the war is over and we can obtain more equipment and materials to work with, they have made many interesting things. Among these are: archery sets, lamps, wooden bowls, lapel pins, bracelets, belts, necklaces, gavels, and molds for making models of dogs and other things.

We hope in years to come to obtain a record high in membership and in the art of making things for our hobbies. More and more things are added every year to the things that we can do and things that we can make out of metal, wood, plastic, beads, and many other materials.

Cafeteria Assistants

Some folks are always wondering what all those Cafeteria Assistants do. And as you know or don't know, it takes a lot of work to prepare a meal. During the first period Peggy and Iris gather up the homeroom cafeteria lists and alphabetize them. Then they make use of practical bookkeeping by keeping all the cafeteria accounts accurate.

The second period Betty Starnes comes down and sets up the cafeteria service. Then comes in Lavada, Christine, Nancy, and Ruth during the third period. Lavada fixes all those pretty salads, and Christine dishes up those delicious desserts while Nancy and Ruth do everything no one else has done. Of course, during the serving period everybody, including Dorothy, comes in to help get the "line through." After lunch you know all those trays and dishes have to be picked up. It takes only a little while really, for when Moose, Betty Jo and Frances get in behind those dishes, they really hustle into the kitchen.

I guess some folks think this is a mighty working job—well, I guess it is, but nobody can doubt that there is a great deal of pleasure in it, too, when they hear Moose's good hearty laugh during fourth period.

You ought to know these girls personally—they are mighty fine girls, and I am sure all appreciate the service they render to our school.
